WELCOME

What is Men Behaving Godly?

Men Behaving Godly is a straightforward idea: get a group of blokes together, share a meal, and have an honest conversation about the things that really matter — faith, family, work, identity, and everything in between.

The name is a play on the classic British sitcom Men Behaving Badly — because we're not interested in pretending to be perfect. We're interested in being real. And in our experience, real men, in a room with no agenda except honesty and a good curry, can change each other's lives.

There's no dress code, no religious performance, no judgement. Just men committed to honouring God in their thoughts, actions, and destinies — and supporting each other along the way. We welcome men from across the churches of Weston-super-Mare and the surrounding villages, and beyond.

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Men from any church — or no church at all.
- Men who are curious about faith, or who used to have it and lost it somewhere.
- Men who want real friendship, not just acquaintances.
- Men who are carrying something and need somewhere to put it down.
- Men who are doing well and want to do even better.

THE PIONEER

Phil brings real-world credibility, pastoral experience, and a genuine heart for men who are struggling or simply looking for something more. He's not here to preach at you. YOUR NEXT STEPS

How to Get Started

1 Come to the first curry night

No commitment, no pressure. Just show up to The Woolpack Inn on Thursday 15th October 2026 at 7pm. Bring a mate if you like.

2 Bring one other man

Think of one bloke who might benefit. Not to convert him — just to give him a chance to come to something real.

3 Explore the website

Check out www.mbg-wsm.org — especially the Under the Bonnet page if there's something specific you're carrying.

4 WhatsApp Phil

If you have questions before you come, or you just want to introduce yourself — Phil would love to hear from you.

5 Keep showing up

The first evening is just the beginning. Brotherhood is built over time, not in a single night.

"Be a man after God's own heart."
